mRNA “vaccines” could unleash epidemic of prion brain diseases, doctors warn

Doctors everywhere are starting to notice serious problems with the new-wave mRNA (modRNA) "vaccines" that were unleashed starting with Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) "vaccines" via Operation Warp Speed. One of them is Dr. Kevin McCairn, a neuroscientist who says the jabs are resulting in the very same "frame shifting" that established science shows is linked to prion production in the brain.

Anything but "safe and effective" as the establishment claims, mRNA injections are increasingly being linked to incurable brain-wasting conditions like Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease and Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease (CJD), all forms of dementia that have no known cure.

The Journal of Theoretical Biology published a study back in 2013 warning about all this as mRNA shots were just coming into the limelight as a novel pharmaceutical intervention, but nobody listened.

That paper looked specifically at CJD, a brain-wasting disease linked to infected cattle. People who eat CJD-infected cattle can develop the disease themselves, linking mRNA technology to the "transmissible spongiform encephalopathy" that results from consuming the tainted proteins.

"Frameshifting accounts quantitatively for the ætiology of prion disease. One per million frameshifted prions may be enough to cause disease," the paper states. "The HIV TAR-like element in the PRNP mRNA is likely an effector of frameshifting."

(Related: Did you hear? Billionaire eugenicist Bill Gates has developed a new Eucharist-like wafer mRNA vaccine that is deposited under the tongue like a religious rite of passage into "immunity.")

mRNA-induced brain damage

Dr. McCairn recently spoke – see the video below – about the risk of prion disease from mRNA exposure, having first brought up the issue in 2020 when Chinese Virus injections were being pushed as the "cure" for COVID.

A former neuroscientist at the Korea Brain Research Institute, Dr. McCairn explains that mRNA technology does, in fact, trigger the same "frame shifting" phenomenon that has repeatedly been linked to the production of harmful prions in the brain.

The Silent Disaster of Biowarfare prions infecting humanity

The really scary thing is that regardless of whether or not a person has taken an mRNA "vaccine" or not, the prions can still spread from person to person.

"Mis-folded proteins caused by prions can impact every level organ and tissue system in the body," Dr. McCairn explains in the above video, which was published by Health Alliance Australia on February 19. "[They] bioaccumulate and are resistant to others. So why have we not heard of this danger?"

The reason why most of the world has never heard about any of this, despite it being known for at least the past decade, has everything to do with the social media censorship problem that has increased dramatically in recent years – and especially since COVID.

Describing the SARS-CoV-2 so-called "virus" as "the result of bio-warfare research," Dr. McCairn wants people to know that there is more than likely going to be an "epidemic of prion disease" now that mRNA is being mainstreamed as a modern "medicine."

In an interview with LifeSiteNews last month, Dr. McCairn also warned of the horrifying likelihood of a prion disease epidemic stemming directly from the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) "vaccine" campaign.

Dr. McCairn is hardly alone in his warnings. British Dr. David Cartland has warned about mRNA-induced prion disease, as has genomics expert Kevin McKernan, but their warnings have been dismissed and even mocked by the corrupt medical establishment.

"We tried to publish this in 2021 with Peter McCullough," McKernan explains in the video below about how his attempts to publish warnings about mRNA have been thwarted.

"Two reviewers signed off on it and then the editor stepped in and torpedoed the paper."
